December's free resource...

...from Dynamic Catholic is now available!

Broken Mary: A Journey of Hope
by Kevin Matthews (hardcover)

The remarkable story of the author's battle with multiple sclerosis will inspire you to find hope in all your challenges.

Many thanks to Dynamic Catholic
Be Bold. Be Catholic.

If you know of someone who is a shut-in, has been hospitalized, or has been placed in a nursing home or rehabilitation facility... and would benefit from receiving a card, prayer blanket or a visit from someone, please let us know by completing a Homebound Ministry form at the back of the church and placing it in the collection basket. It will be given to someone in our church community who will be happy to reach out to that person.

Also, if you would be interested in assisting with this ministry, please contact the church office and let us know. Thank you for your assistance with this very worthwhile ministry to those in need.

DON'S CORNER

by Don Coffman, Sacred Heart DRE

✠ Good and Evil: "Good and evil both increase at compound interest. That is why the little decisions you and I make every day are of such infinite importance. The smallest good act today is the capture of a strategic point from which, a few months later, you may be able to go on to victories you never dreamed of. An apparently trivial indulgence in lust or anger today is the loss of a ridge or railway line or bridgehead from which the enemy may launch an attack otherwise impossible." —C.S. Lewis

CONGRATULATIONS!...

...to Fr. George Otuma, on being installed today as pastor of St. Bernard and Sacred Heart parishes by Archbishop Kurtz. We will have a reception to welcome Archbishop Kurtz and congratulate Fr. George immediately after the 11:00 AM Mass. Please join in the celebration!

If you would like to make a Christmas flower offering in memory/honor of someone, you may fill out the special envelope in your church envelope box and place it in the collection basket. If you don't have an envelope, you may write the information on a plain envelope instead.

Reflection on Today's Readings:

“And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value....” (Philippians 1:9-10)

When we take seriously the role of steward, our vision becomes outward-directed with a longing to share from our blessings and abundance with those in need.
